

Tuna Melts

Serves: 2 | Prep: 10 min | Cook: 10 min

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cans (185g each) tuna in water, drained
- 3 tbsp mayonnaise
- 2 tbsp sweet relish or dill pickles, chopped
- 1/4 red onion, finely diced
- 1 celery stalk, finely diced
- 1 tsp Dijon mustard
- Salt & black pepper to taste
- 4 slices sourdough or white bread
- 4 slices sharp cheddar cheese
- 1 large tomato, sliced
- 2 tbsp butter

METHOD

Step 1

In a bowl, combine tuna, mayonnaise, relish, red onion, celery and mustard. Season with salt and pepper and mix well.

Step 2

Lay out the bread slices. Place 1 slice of cheddar on each piece of bread, then top 2 slices with tomato and spread the tuna mixture evenly over the tomato. Top with the remaining cheese-covered bread slices.

Step 3

Heat a large skillet over medium-low heat. Melt 1 tbsp butter and add sandwiches. Cook for 4–5 minutes until the bottom is golden and cheese starts to melt.

Step 4

Add remaining butter, carefully flip the sandwiches and cook a further 4–5 minutes until both sides are golden and cheese is fully melted.

Step 5

Slice diagonally and serve immediately.

TIPS & NOTES

- ◆ Use white albacore tuna packed in water for best flavour — drain very thoroughly.
- ◆ Don't rush — medium-low heat ensures the cheese melts fully before the bread over-browns.
- ◆ These also work great open-faced under the grill/broiler for a quicker option.
