Ingredients

BEEF BRISKET

- 1.8 kg beef brisket
- 1 tbsp dried thyme or dried oregano
- 1 tbsp smoked paprika
- 1 tbsp ground cumin
- 2 tsp garlic powder
- 2 tsp sea salt flakes
- 1 tsp freshly cracked black pepper
- 1 tsp onion powder
- ½ tsp chilli powder (optional)

HONEY BBQ SAUCE

- 250 ml tomato ketchup
- 80 ml apple cider vinegar
- 50 g brown sugar
- 2 tbsp honey
- 2 tbsp Worcestershire sauce
- 1 tbsp dijon mustard
- Freshly cracked black pepper, to taste

FRIES

- 1 kg large white potatoes, peeled or unpeeled (I leave them unpeeled), sliced into thick fries or wedges (see note 1)
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- ½ tsp sea salt flakes
- ½ tsp sweet paprika
- ½ tsp onion powder

TO SERVE

- 250 g shredded Mexican cheese blend (can be substituted with your favourite melting cheese, such as colby, cheddar or monterey jack)
- 1 tomato, diced
- 1 small white onion, diced
- 1 spring onion (scallion), finely sliced

Instructions

1. Season the beef – Place the beef brisket on a plate or in a shallow bowl. Sprinkle the meat with the thyme, smoked paprika, cumin, garlic powder, sea salt, pepper, onion powder and chilli powder (if using). Rub the seasoning all over the meat, using your hands to coat it as evenly as you can. Place the brisket into the base of a slow-cooker, along with any extra seasoning left on the plate.

2. Make the sauce – In a separate medium bowl, combine all the ingredients for the honey BBQ sauce. Pour the sauce over the brisket – it won't be completely submerged, and that is okay!
3. Slow-cook the beef – Cook on low for 10–11 hours, or on high for 6–7 hours, or until pull-apart tender.
4. Shred the beef – Shred the brisket using two forks. If you would like a thicker sauce, continue cooking the brisket for up to 30 minutes on high, with the slow-cooker lid off.
5. Make the fries – Preheat the oven to 220°C (425°F) (200°C/400°F fan-forced).
6. Add the fries to a large baking tray lined with baking (parchment) paper (use two trays if needed to avoid the potatoes overlapping). Add the olive oil, salt, sweet paprika and onion powder. Toss to coat using your hands or tongs. Bake for 35–45 minutes, or until lightly golden-brown and crispy on the outside and tender on the inside. If using two trays, place one in the bottom and one in the top of the oven. Flip the trays once halfway through cooking.
7. Melt the cheese – Arrange the fries on a serving platter, spoon the brisket over the top and generously top with cheese.
8. Place back in the oven and bake for 10 minutes until the cheese is melted.
9. Serve – Top with the tomato and white onion and garnish with the spring onion.

Notes

Note 1 – You can use up to 2 kg (4¼ lb) brisket.

Note 2 – Use store-bought freezer fries (ideally waffle/lattice-cut) or thick or sweet potato fries if you're short on time and want to make this an even faster dinner! You could even try loading up hash browns or Tater Tots.

Make Ahead

Marinated brisket and the honey BBQ sauce can be prepared ahead of time and refrigerated separately in airtight containers for up to 3 days.

Leftovers

Refrigerate leftovers in an airtight container for up to 3 days, or freeze just the beef component for up to 3 months. Thaw completely overnight in the fridge prior to reheating in the microwave for best results. Leftover ideas – Try a beef brisket toastie (grilled sandwich) with cheese and pickles, or brisket sliders with coleslaw!
